WHAT MUST IT SAY ABOUT ME?

What must it say about me
That my poetry is published in Neurology?
I suppose it is better than if my Science
Were published in
The Yale Review.

What must it say about me
That even those of my patients with Signs of their symptoms
Have complaints unaccompanied by Reason
Or relevant signs
Of disease?

What must it say about me
That mistakes of importance to patients long gone
Inform
And live on in survival of others they never will Know?

HIPAA

So many of the things that move us
Are a secret these days.
A secret from the estranged wife,
From the loving husband,
From the divorced parent who has been thrown out of the house.
A secret the patient keeps from himself when he looks in the mirror in the morning.
(It is no wonder we doctors resort to poetry.)
