Neurology[®] 2020;94:3-11. doi:10.1212/WNL.0000000000008689

Neurology[®] manuscript submissions continue to increase. The journal received 3,336 new and 597 revised manuscripts between April 1, 2019, and September 30, 2019 (compared to 2,673 new and 681 revised manuscripts during the same period in 2018). We received 4,455 peer reviews evaluating these papers. Our reviewers play a crucial role in enhancing the quality of what we publish.

Only a minority of submitted manuscripts can be published. Decisions regarding which articles will most benefit readers and improve patient care are often difficult. Your comments regarding uniqueness of study populations, novel methods, studies that are especially educational, or new strategies for diagnosing and treating neurologic disease are immensely helpful. We thank you for your cooperation in returning reviews within a timely manner despite your many other obligations.

We sincerely appreciate the constructive feedback by reviewers of manuscripts submitted to the Resident & Fellow Section of Neurology. Your comments are extremely helpful to junior authors striving to improve their clinical and scientific writing abilities.

Please follow the guidelines for reviewing papers accessed by selecting the Information for Reviewers (IFR) link at n.neurology.org/submit/submitreview. The IFR provides information on expectations of reviewers regarding confidentiality, timeliness, and reviewer conflicts of interest. It also provides instructions for formatting the comments to editors and authors to enable the most effective communication with authors.

Please email journal@neurology.org if you would like to do more reviews or if you have never reviewed for the journal but are interested in doing so. Include a description of your credentials and expertise in the areas in which you are qualified to review.

The reviewers listed below with one asterisk have reviewed 5 or more papers. Two asterisks indicate that the reviewer has reviewed 10 or more manuscripts. This list includes those reviewers who returned a review or reviews of initial submissions (re-reviews of the same manuscript are not included) between April 1, 2019, and September 30, 2019.
