A ruddy clot, thick, viscous as fresh mud gets lodged within brain vessel. Language lobe, its thirst not slaked, vampiric quest for blood, succumbs, and like the emperor disrobed, a naked stream of consciousness pours out.

To comprehend: impaired; intact is just repeating. Lonely Echo parrots shouts and whispers in a narcissistic quest to claim what's left of her expression, half-life lived in mimicked bursts of phrases, forme fruste of language, thwarted, sometimes graphic words, obscenities can take the place of speech. When all expression is but loaned, what happens when your words are not your own?
