ACCEPTED

When lightning flies across a starlit sky,

I often meditate thine artful form

And see that very lightning ramify

Like lustrous roots – an oaken thunderstorm.

O Brain! Thy royal throne a humble stem

Through which commands in seamless fashion flow.

Thine arborescent lambency a gem;

An ancient arbor vitae's afterglow.

Afloat inside a palace built with bone,

Thou mustn't claim thy keep cannot be harmed!

For every monarch, favored or unknown,

A host of fiendish foes stay ably armed.

Such grievous ailments splinter through thy prime;

Our quest for thee shall soothe thine aches with time.
